

Do you have any Outstanding Fines?

Carrie's Place is an approved organisation for the NSW office of State Revenue, Work and Development Orders.

This means that if you undertake certain activities as a part of your contact with Carrie's Place , you can receive credits to reduce your outstanding fines.

Examples Include:

- Participating in Educational/Vocational skills courses (eg. Butterfly Group)
- Voluntary work
- Mental Health treatment, counseling, alcohol, other drug treatment

If you have outstanding NSW fines, contact your case worker or Carrie's Place worker on 4934 2585

Women's & Children's Services Inc.